Toledo Local Section (since 1917)

Winner: Toledo-Lucas County Library and the Toledo Local Section of the ACS

The Toledo Section ACS developed a partnership with the Toledo Lucas County Library. They initiated/developed a partnership to bring in chemistry/science authors to their widely acclaimed authors and open book forum series. This was a great way to promote science literacy outreach in our community. The Toledo Lucas County Library has proven to be a jewel in the local community and has been an extremely beneficial to opening many new doors. The Toledo Section ACS also initiated partnership with the library's youth services by offering free hands on demonstrations at branch libraries during the Summer Reading Program and National Chemistry Week for tweens and teens.
